

NGUNNAWAL PRIMARY SCHOOL BOOK WEEK 2021

Welcome to Book Week 2021.

Book Week is a time to highlight the importance of reading and celebrating books and Australian children's authors and illustrators. During Week 7 of this term, we have organised activities and have some special visitors coming to our school to promote the importance of reading and how it can connect with the world beyond school.

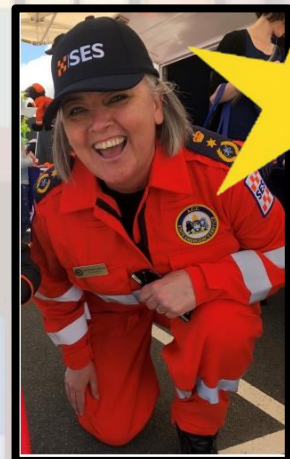

Dress Up Parade: Wednesday 25th August on the oval

Families can gather around the edges of the oval by 9:15am, please social distance.

Constable Kenny Koala and David will be visiting the Preschool classes on Monday 23 August and Friday 27 August. Kenny has pre-recorded reading a story which the classes will watch prior to his visit.

ACT ESA Commissioner Georgeina Whelan will be coming in with some special friends to read some stories to the Kindergarten, Year 1 and Year 2 classes on Wednesday 25 August.

Local author Leanne Shea Langdown will be coming in on Thursday 26th August to visit the Year 3 and 4 classes and introduce them to her Cheer Chick Charlie series of books and talk about how she became a children's author.

Leanne's books can be purchased from:

<https://www.cheerchickcharlie.com/>

For Year 5/6 classes we have local author Angela Moyle coming in on Friday 27th August to chat about her Minky Robinson series of books and chatting about how she got into writing and why she loves writing children's books.

Angela's books can be purchased at a special NPS price from:

<https://angelamoyle.blogspot.com/p/specials.html>

