

Chief Minister's Reading Challenge

The Chief Minister's Reading Challenge finishes on 19 August. Students are required to give their completed reading records to their classroom teacher or Mary Contreras by Wednesday 17 August for verification. Students who are still completing the reading requirements are encouraged to speak to their teacher or school librarian for assistance and book recommendations.

Still looking for great reads? Check out the recent work of some of our CMRC Ambassadors.

10 Minutes of Danger is a book by Jack Heath. The book is a collection of short stories about asteroids, volcanoes, funnel web spiders and killer robots.

Tania McCartney has just finished writing the third book in the Plume picture book series. It is about a little penguin who travels the world – it's called Plume: Festival Seeker. It will be out this November. Tania is also working on a massive Wildlife Compendium of the World book— She knows kids will love it! It's out around May 2023.

Stephanie Owen Reeder's latest narrative nonfiction picture book Swifty: The Super-fast Parrot, illustrated by Astred Hicks and published by CSIRO Publishing, is ready to take flight on 1 October.

